

Shady Shafer

Economist, Standard Chartered Bank

Middle East

Shady Shafer joined Standard Chartered Bank as a currency trader in 2005, specialising in a broad range of FX tradable instruments. He has recently taken up a role with Global Research as an economist with a special focus on GCC markets. Before joining Standard Chartered, Shady had several years of experience in local and foreign financial instructions with exposure to foreign exchange, equities, and risk management. He also has experience in the oil industry having been employed in the finance department of a government run oil company in his native Dubai.

Shady holds a degree in Accounting from the Higher Colleges of Technology in Dubai, U.A.E and is pursuing his MBA from the University of Strathclyde.