

Stephen Richards Evans
Head of Standard Chartered Private Bank, Europe, Middle East, Africa, India and Americas

A senior banker with nearly 25 years' broad experience in private, corporate, and international banking (trade and project finance) who has specialised in focused senior private banking roles over the past 17 years in Asia and the Middle East. Senior positions have been held in Hong Kong, Singapore and Dubai – all career roles have involved lending. Senior roles have been varied but have largely involved strategy and policy formulation and implementation; overall business direction, control and management, regulatory relationships' management and critical private client relationship oversight, high level interaction and 'hands on' Business support.

Joined SCB in Hong Kong on January 1, 2007 after starting his banking career in London in 1983 with Lloyds Bank International Limited for which organisation he held a series of international and private banking roles culminating in Chief Executive Asia appointment in 2000 before joining HSBC's Private Bank for senior roles in Singapore and the Middle East (latterly as Chief Executive, Emirates platforms & Southern Gulf States).

Former member of the Hong Kong Foreign Exchange and Money Market Practices Committee (a non-statutory body), member of Hong Kong banking association and full member of the Hong Kong Securities Institute. Fellow of the Hong Kong Institute of Directors.